

Quarantine Curriculum - Week 5

Apr 12, 2020 | 0  | ontheblogs, Quarantine Curriculum

Welcome to Week 5 of your Quarantine Curriculum.

This week we share tips and reminders on the impact of kindness and civility in the workplace, how we can work better together, stay healthy and ... a guide on how to run your first resuscitation.

For a recap of Week 1 through Week 4 visit:

- Quarantine Curriculum - Week 1
- Quarantine Curriculum - Week 2
- Quarantine Curriculum - Week 3
- Quarantine Curriculum - Week 4

Until next week's Quarantine Curriculum, stay safe.

<https://onthewards.org/a-letter-to-an-intern/>

<https://onthewards.org/pearls-for-wisdom-for-newly-minted-junior-doctors/>

<https://onthewards.org/the-big-5-traits-of-sport-and-medicine/>

<https://onthewards.org/civility-saves-lives-the-impact-and-importance-of-civility-in-the-workplace/>

<https://onthewards.org/part-1-how-to-be-a-kind-physician/>

<https://onthewards.org/jmo-health-and-wellbeing-still-paramount/>

<https://onthewards.org/interdependence/>

<https://onthewards.org/managing-difficult-situations-distressed-patients-and-families/>

<https://onthewards.org/running-your-first-resuscitation-a-guide-for-the-junior-doctor/>

<https://onthewards.org/we-all-make-mistakes-diagnostic-error-in-medicine/>

Tags: #Australian Curriculum Framework for Junior Doctors,#CPMEC,#diagnostic error,#doctors health and wellbeing,#junior doctors,#medical students,#medicaleducation,#quarantine curriculum,#tipsfornewdocs